Membership Categories

(1) Full Membership is open to:

- a resident living in an ACT Retirement Village; or
- a person with Power of Attorney and/or Enduring power of Attorney of a resident living in an ACT Retirement Village.

(2) Joint Membership is open to a couple living in the same independent living unit/villa or apartment in an ACT Retirement Village.

Each Member of a Joint Membership enjoys the same membership rights, privileges and obligations as does a Full Member.

In recognition of the reduced annual fee payable for a Joint Membership relative to a Full Membership, Joint Members will receive one only copy of material that is published or issued from time to time by the Association.

If one Member of a Joint Membership ceases to be a Member, the remaining Member may continue membership as a Full Member.

(3) Associate Membership is open to:

- a person not qualifying for Full or Joint membership; or
- a representative of an organisation that has an interest in retirement living in a Retirement Village other than as specifically excluded in the following paragraph;

Associate Membership is not open to any person (including a legal entity) that is the owner and/or operator of a Retirement Village, or any staff (employees or otherwise), of that owner or operator.

Associate Members enjoy the same membership rights, privileges and obligations as do Full Members, with the exception of being ineligible:

- to vote on any matter; and
- to stand for election to the Committee.
